

Appointment of Siven Chellen as the new CEO of Jet Prime

Plaine Magnien, June 14th, 2024 – Jet Prime Ltd, a subsidiary of Airport Holdings Ltd, is pleased to announce the appointment of Siven Chellen as its Chief Executive Officer (CEO) effective June 11, 2024.

Siven Chellen has held several executive positions at Airports of Mauritius Ltd (AML) from 2006 to 2022, including his last position as Officer in Charge. As a dedicated professional passionate about the aviation industry, he has also served as a Director on the Boards of ACI World (Airports Council International) and ACI Africa.

Before joining AML, Siven Chellen had a long career in banking and finance in the UK and Mauritius. His expertise and leadership have been recognised by his peers and the institutions he has collaborated with. He is a Certified Internal Auditor (CIA) and a Fellow Chartered Certified Accountant (FCCA). Most recently, Siven Chellen served as a Consultant for the SBM group in Kenya, where he added significant value through his experience and management skills.

« I am honoured to join Jet Prime and contribute to its continued development. I look forward to working with the team to provide an exceptional experience for our customers, » said Siven Chellen.

This appointment marks a new step in Jet Prime's commitment to providing high-quality services and strengthening its position as a leader in the sector.

About Jet Prime Ltd

Jet Prime Ltd, a subsidiary of Airport Holdings Ltd, operates the exclusive lounge at Sir Seewoosagur Ramgoolam Airport in Mauritius, known for its commitment to excellence in airport hospitality. Specialising in hosting private jets and commercial travellers, Jet Prime is dedicated to providing an unparalleled travel experience through personalised and luxury services. Jet Prime offers baggage handling and continuous assistance to its clients. Travelers benefit from priority treatment, with arrival and departure formalities completed in the lounge without queuing for immigration, health checks, and customs. With modern and elegant facilities, Jet Prime provides a comfortable and tranquil environment ideal for relaxing or working while waiting for flights.